THE KING OF THE BOXDHOLDERS FLIES THE TRACK.

There is trouble in the radical camp Jay Cooke has come down on the Grant and Colfax people, and refuses to subscribe. This I know to be true, and announce definitely. Grant's man Washburne is in New York, trying to raise to the fact that he believes Grant nnsound on the bond issue. It is also laid to the account of Mr. Chase. Whatever its origin it is a fact, and the radical leaders are both incensed and aghast.

On motion of Mr. Edmunds, the con-current resolution of thanks to Stanton was ordered to be communicated to him.

current resolution of thanks to Stanton was ordered to be communicated to him.

LEGILATIVE APPROPRIATION BILL.

Mr. Trumbull endeavored to bave the veto of the Arkansas bill reconsidered, but Mr. Davis, having indicated his intention to speak on the subject, Mr. Morrill, of Me., insisted on the subject, Mr. Morrill, of Me., insisted on the special order, and the legislative appropriation bill was taken up in Committee of the Whole. The question was on the amendments by the Committee on Appropriat ous.

An amendment by Mr. Hendricks, reducing the salaries named in the Committee a amendment for the Capital police—that of Captain, from $2.000 to $1,500; of Lieutenant, from $2.000 to $1,500; of privates, from $1,500 to $1,500; of privates, from $1,500 to $1,200—was rejected after some discussion. Vote, 11 to 19.

The committee's amendment criting off the Assistant Secretary, short-hand reporter and two clerks of the fourth class of the Precident, was adopted after delate by a vote of 19 to 12.

An amendment repealing the act of Angust 1s, 1856, requiring foreign regulations of commerce to be laid before Congress, and the second cretion of the act of 1866 making appropriations for consular and diplomstic service, was debated in some length. The first clause of the amendment abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics,

Mr. Davis argued that the bill was nuconstitutional.

After which the Senate proceeded to vote on the question—Shall the bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the President?—with the following result:
Yeas—Messrs. Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Conness, Corbett, Cragin, Edmunds, Ferry, Fessendon, Harlan, Howard, Morrill, Vt.; Morgan, N. Y.; Patterson, N. H.; Pomeroy, Ramsey, Ross. Sherman, Sprsgue, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Trimbull, Van Wiukle, Wade, Willey, Wilson, and Yates—30.

Besides the regular delegates, many of the Western States are sending large num-bers of organized bodies called eacorta. The Pendleton escort from Cincinnati, alone, numbers one thousand men. St. Lonis and other Western cities also have such organizations, and they seem to think that they may accomplish something by the mere exhibition of unumbers. Pre-parations have been made at the Astor House for the reception of the delegations from New Hampshire and New Jersey, some of whom have already arrived. The most lively quarters will probably be the bouse incline toward Cbase; and, though they are not organized like the Western executs, they will, nevertheless, prove very efficient workers. As a general rule, the Southern delegates will have but little to say; and at present, though favoring Chase, they are determined to do anything to promote harmony. They fear that the Pendleton party may produce a split, and thereby insure the defeat of the party, by which they expect to be aved from radical rule. The Western delegates will be scattered through the various hotels in the city, but they have secured the Masonic Hall, in Thirteeuth street, for their place of talking. They seem to be thoroughly united in the determination to have l'eudleton or nothing, and if they are as plucky as they are noisy, they will produce a great

New Yoak Post office, submitted to the Honse of Representatives, approves the purchase of a site in the Park as being a central location, and says that since the property is worth $2,50,000, the Government did very well in getting it for $500,—6. It further declares, what nobody will dispute, that the building now occupied by the postal department is inadequate and inconvenient. The mail handled in 1867 averaged 97 tons or 200 wagon loads a day. The daily average of letters dispatched is 250,000, and the average value of each day smalls $10,000,000. In view of these facts the report reaches the sansible conclusion that a new post-office is acceded, and that it should be a commoditions, substantial and elegant hailding.

The Fried of India, in mentioning the matter, calls attention to the difficulty of preventing the practice. The able and exhaustive argument of the Hon. Jacob S. Golladay, of Kentucky, (which we print on our first page) in response to the partisan harrangue of Horace Maynard, of this State, in defense of the Brownlow administration in the House of Representative, will be read with interest by Tennesseeans, and will repay perusal. The galtant Kentucky Representative has not forgotten the noble State which gave him hirth, and manfully comes to her defense against the aspersions of "the Narngansett" upon the character of her citizens. Up to this time Tennessee, the first of the "wayward sisters" reconstructed under the Congressional policy, and brutally misgoverned by Brownlow and his radical myrmidous, by and with the consent of the radical Congress, has received but little notice from the Northern Democratic press and the anti-radical representatives in the National Councils. We have been at a loss to account for their studied silence regarding the political status of Tennessee, which has, perhaps, furnished more abundant material of argument against the Congressional policy of reconstruction than any other Southern State, and we are encouraged Southern State, and we are encouraged to know that there is at least one hold and honest champion of the conservative cause in Congress unwilling to permit her wrongs to he passed in silence and who has the manliness to rise his voice against the usurpations of the miserable faction that, by the grace of Congress, has loaded her limbs with chains.

Then, as the Government of the United States is to execute this guarantee, the question arises, what constitutes the government of the United States? Tha I'resident does not constitute the government: the Coupress does not constitute the government; the Judiciary does not constitute the government, the Judiciary does not constitute the government, and as this guarantee is to be executed by the Government of the United States, it follows necessarily that it must be a legislative act. The President could not assume to execute the guarantee without assuming that he was the Government of the United States. Still another object which the Rapublicans will accomplish by the admission of those States, is to accure the Federal guarantee for the new State Governments. The provision of the Constitution respecting guarantees is this. "The United States shall guarantee in every State in the Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion, and on application of the Legislature, or of the Executive, when the Legislature cannot be concened, against domestic violence." By the admission of those States, their existing governments are placed within the operation of the last clause of this guarantee. The first section of the act of 1795, passed to carry out this guarantee, is in these terms: "In case of an insurrection in any State against the government thereof, it shall be lawful for the President of the t is enpported both by reason and by law, And we have no doubt that the Snpreme Court is prepared to affirm it. Judge Terey's opinion in the Dorr case is a very pripe discussion of a question which then was but imperfectly comprehended by say one. Since then events have lifted the question into a light so broa and strong that all may comprehend i In this light, Judge Taney, if he were liv-ing, would undoubtedly be the first to decard his early opinion, and the most realous to maintain the opinion which we have briefly developed. Ilis early opin ion assuredly is cutitled to no weight as is a precedent in the present case.

question, the decision is binding on every separate department of the government. Nor is the question necessarily at an end until the whole government does decide it. If this were not so, and the mere decision of each House of Congress were actually binding on every other department of the government, (for in this matter each House acts independently of the other and binds that as completely as the Executive or the Judiciary), it would follow, in case that one House should decide one way and the other House should decide the contrary way, that there would he two mutually contradictory decisions, both of which, according to the bypothesis, would be binding on the Executive and the Judiciary; which is absurd. And this is precisely what Judge Taneys opinion comes to. The true doctrine is the obvious doctrine. The government of the United States consists not of any one department alone but of all the departments to gether and, as the power of guarantee and of protection is expressly confided to the Government of the United States consists not of any one department alone but of all the departments to the House access to the Federal Courts, and not by usurpation, as in the Civil Rights and Freedmen's Bureau bills, illegally assumed by Omipotence himself, and adjudication.

As said by that distinguished radical leader Senator Trumbull: "The distinction between the white and black races was made by Omipotence the states consists not of any one department of the government is entitled to participate in the exercise of the Federal Courts, and not by legislation produce such equality that they can live happily together. It is engagestion of the "separation" of the two races hy negro colonization is therefore the best alternative, a letter policy than amilganation.

On this point we cannot forbear to quote the following passage from Senator Morton's late speech on reconstruction, a speech, which, hy common consent, has placed him at the head of his party in the Senate:

The Constitution says that "the United States consile

The Constitution says that "the United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a republican form of government." In this replacing the negroes under the schieff domination of the whites, there can be much better reliance that the lomination will not be seriously abused to the projudice of the negroes than that he negro domination given by the radiosis will not be wontonly abused to the prijudice of the whites. In the me case the reliance rest upon the ineligence, high civingation, and christian irtue of a portion of our own race—our wantonly abused such power, whereas, wh countrymen—who never wantonly of hhumanly abused such power; whereas in the other case, reliance least to be placed pout the forbearance of an alien, barbar-us race, of half civilized, bruish ignor-nce and passions, who never failed to ouse such power whenever it came to lut iu avoidance of any undue trust in

The memorials from thousands f negroes, asking Congressional aid to yen African colonization, show that many f them are niready prepared to receive merican colonization as a great boon to their face.

With all considerate men, separation of the races must be deemed nuch better and safer than theradical plan, which enables the negroes to elect twenty-two United States Senators, some sixty negro liepresentatives, and to give some eighty odd electoral votes for President. With such a large political power as that to sid the corrupt use of Federal power and putronage toward controlling the elections, it is greatly to be feared that the nation will not be able to relieve itself from political traidem if the radicals succeed at the next Presidential and Congressional elections. But should a large majority of the people of the loyal States vote in favor of the conservative candidate, and elect a majority of conservative Representatives, that great mischief can be avoided, and the Constitution reinstated without the use of any other than ligal jacific means. Bold as are the bad nen who lead the radical party, and greans has been their eseming power of dictation, yet when brought to the test it will be found that a large portion, possibly a majority of the party, cannot be brought to distingered and dely such an expression of the will of their constituents, but will add in the repeal of the obnoxions measures and the restoration of the Constitution. Nor will this necessarily require a saiting for the expiration of the terms of critain Senators. ITII the nomination of a ticket by the National Democratic Convention, which assembles in New York on the Fourth of hoth sides, and for four months thereafte the progress of events will be all impor ant to the least of American citizens.

N : his great conflict the Press will play a part hitherto unexampled in the annal ot political warfare. Already it takes the its columns to reach a great number of people. Its business will be to embou the spirit and to report the progress o which best fills this great mission.

IT is the business of the present man agement of the LOUISVILLE JOURNAL o muke it the first newspaper in the South r Southwest as a representative organ o be times. With this view, they have en larged its size, doubled its editorial force and refitted it throughout. Henceforward ng and liberal basis.

HE JOURNAL is submitted to the Southern people as embracing a combina-tion of all the conservative elements which have joined hunds over the alta of the Constitution in forming a great ontional, Democratic Party. It presented us the largest, livest, and chear est newspaper in America. No other paper published in the South or Southwest can upproach it in these respects, as the render will discover by comparing it with ts competitors for the public patronage VII.

IT is printed on n broad, ten-colum sl. ct, iu clear type, and upon substanti white paper. It can be read by brush ight by old or young. It omits nothing ol interest-local, general, or foreign-that occurs. It has special telegraph crrespondents at all the principal point f news. Its specialties are numerou and obvious, from its political leaders i its paragraphs. Lach of its departmen is tilled by competent writers, whose dut is to surpass all competition.

VIII. OR the truth of these assertions, the reader is simply requested to compare the JCURNAL, line by line, and column by column, with any other newspaper printe not found to leave a self evident balance in its favor, we will not urge the point Our aim is to produce the best article of the market and to sell it cheapest. The law of trade applies not less to newspa-pers than to other articles of every-day . We look to the unvarying rule o this great common law for our success By giving the public the largest, livest illest, freshest, cheapest, and most rep to surpass all rivalry in circulation and WITH this plain statement of its view and objects, the attention of the reader is called to the price of the Journal. The South is poor, and, therefore, the subscripion price for both the daily and weekly ditions has been put down to the lowest iving figure. The daily is sent by mail subscribers at eight dollars a year. while other newspapers, smaller and less carefully conducted, are going at ten twelve, and even fourteen dollars a year The Weckly is sent to subscribers, by mail, at two dollars a year. These prices are fabulously low, but the JOURNAL apects them to pay by the large increase ratrousge, which they have already se d, and are securing every dny. Be ore the canvass is over, if the rteady in ase of our business goes on, we are jusfied in believing that we shall have, is entucky and Tonnssee, ten thousand daily readers and twenty-five thousand weekly subscribers. This is not an over stimate at the slow but steady ratio which set in with the opening of the new season. Nor is it unreasonable when the unprecedented CLUB RATES allowed by us e considered. Take note of them: Fe seventy dollars forwarded us, we will send deren copies of the Daily Journal for on year. This gives the getter-up of the clustere copy for himself, free, while each o he club gets one copy for one year at see in dollars. We will send twenty-one opies, under the same arrangement, for 10, which gives the getter-up of the cla is copy free and each member of the hb Lis copy for six dollars. We wil seed, under the same arrangement, thirty-one copies for $150, which gives th each member of the club his copy for five d dilars. CHICAGO, June 21, 1868. THE GERMAN CHARACTER. "Ernst is das Loben, heiter die Kunst"datroduced national festivals of great ex-tent and of vast importance. The Saen-perfests are musical reunions which col-lect men from all parts of the country, nd song. In these regards the German haracter is very similar to the character of the old Greeks. was composed of htty-seven pieces under the beston of Hans Balatka. Carl Maria Von Weber's Jubilee overture opened the cer-muches, and was well rendered and received with enthusiaetic applause. Mr. J. Otto's Greeting Chorus was then sung by the Chicago nocieties. The German Song, a chorus, with a solo quartette, was given, Schulitz's beantiful tenor voice being distinctly recognizable. The Star Spangled Banner was then sung by the united singers and such of the audience as would join, making, with the powerful orchestral accompaniment, a lasting and overwhelming impression. After the opening chorus, Consul Channenius introduced his Honor Mayor J. B. Rice, whose spaceh you have already given to the readers of the Journal. At the conclusion of his address three cheers were given for the Mayor. Mr. Otto, the former President of the Saengerbund, then apoke, addressing himself to his Chicago successor, and presenting him the banner of the North American Saengerbund. Mr. Claussinius received the flag with a few appropriate and hand-some remarks.

treated the assemblage to some beautitat and well-rendered songs and performances upon the piano. Among the performers we noticed a Mr. Georges, of the New York Liederkranz, who, a native American, sang Im Tlefen Keller Silz ich Hier, in the original German text, to the greatest satisfaction of the hearers. The President of the Concerdia, Mr. Hofman, delivered a very pratty little speech of welcome in the halls of his society, which was enthusiastically received as hich was enthusiastically rec he guests of that Verein.

The First grand Fest concert, chiefly vocal, took place at eight o'clock in the evening. The half was well filled, sithingh it was noticeable that several hundred more persons would have found comfortable seats. A short introductory sentence, writ en by Mueller von der Werra, and composed by Reichart especially for this creation, was sung by the chorus, after which the orchestra played the britliant Rienza overture of Wagner. The warlike character of this creation appears in the lattroductory strains of Wagner favorite instrument, the trombone, followed by the beautiful and hosinustive

The great effect which thie instrument is capable of preducing has long ego mede it a favorite among the number of masical instruments. The sounde of an Eolus harp intermingled with the deep notes of the bass is the themes and variations which Mollenbauz drew from 1 is enchanting lustrument. The appliance was deafening, suffle was compelled to appear again to delight the audience and keep it spell-bound. The fine effect of the echo which he produces up in his cello stamps bimas a first-class artist, witnont superior or rival in this country. The solo next sang by Mr. Stona again gave this gentleman a chance to show his anperb voice. Lind-pointner's Jubiles overture was well performed by the orchestre, which is a composition of ruperior worth. The '71 Segroi' thy Abt) by Madame Lumley Blath, was very creditable to that lady, although her voice showed some unmistakable signs of wear. Director Anton next made his appearance with about thirty members of this society, the Arton of the West, of St. Louis. They man in excellent unison, good, taste, and great effect, the "Wohin und Halt," from Zechler's Mueller Steder. It it had not been for some rather uncultivated voices this society might well be sanked next to their lastern competitors. The Schlifermarech, by Meyerbeer, was well done by Jestorchestra and contains some fine instrumental effects. This closed the seriod and last concert. A matines, to take place on Saturday, was announced by Mr. Blattas. Singers and musicians adjourned as on previous evenings to the different balls and quarters. On Saturday morning early, a large number of the guests left Chicago, the plucipal features of the festival, the concerts, being ever, and the bail and picufe talling to keep many there. All in all the Fest was a great success. The arrangement made by the different committees were all very well executed, and did not fail to elicitavitisation to all concerned. The Bohemlans were well treated, and any amount of beer, whe, and cigars was supplied to and consumed in the press recm. A Lamentable Affair.

Ater Own and Children's Liver

Frem the Big Sandy Ky. Herald, 18th.

On Sunday last a man named Clurk, who lives near Keeser's Ricks, on Sandy, came to town and got beastly drunk, went beine, and, we usual, when in this state, commenced abusing his family, and kird it up until a late bour in the night, leating his wife, threalening to shoot ber, the children, or some one else before the next day. He put a guu into the month of one of the children and threatened to shoot him, but an older boy knocked the gun away and trek it from him. He then and snother child semewhere in the neighborhood of his house ta field) to get another gun he had there, loaded, all the time vowing he would kill some one. While the child was gone he pulled his bed into the thoor and lay down, when the mether, for fear of her life, or that of her children, seized an ax and struck him severat blows, the first of which proved fatal, he unt moving after being struck.

The weman and her family were arrest-d and brought into town on Monday, and examined before Judge Norris. The widence proved that the act was done to ave herself or children from murder, and they were discharged.

He then introduced the fest orator, Mr. Tchineger, who read off a very beautiful and well composed speech, full of high sontiment, welcoming the singers from abroad to the banks of the great lake and the garden city of the West. The programme originally intend-d for this occasion was materially shortered to gain time for the grand terchlight procussion, which formed on Wabash avenue, amoundately after the close of the erremonies. The Chicago Turners headed and hanked the long line of procussion, which contained no less than one thousand glaring torchlights and seventy-two beautiful dags. Under the atrains of the music from several bands, the line of much was taken through the principal streets and the thunder of one handred guan, fired in honor of the occasion. Several buildings, preminent among which the dine of the Million's Steatz-efemp, were brilliant; tilluminated. The crowd gathered to witness this procession was immense, and the doors and windows along the time of march were through do year and any Kidd and Miss Jordan were brought up together in the eame neighborhood, and have associated together from childhood. The parents of each are farmers, and people of the highest respectability. He has been paying his addresses to her for two years or more, but has always been received coolly, and there are reports of another lover to whom she was at least tuch more attached than to Kidd, and it is not nt all improbable that jealousy, as well as otter urgovernable passions, may have had much to do with his fiendism crime. When in the pineries, last winter, he wrote her a letter, telling her that if she did not marry him she would be of no secount to any other usan, and one report declares that he had twice attempted to shoot her, once through her window at night, and at another time in a like stealihy menner. It is further said that on Sunday he sent his trunk up the river on the steamer City of St. Paul, a fact which would certainty have a bad lock.

Excitement in Sewickly, Pa, A Man Scalbhol and Eddly Heaten-Ar-rest of the Assailants - And Desteoy All the Liquor in the Village.

All the Liquer in the Village.

From the Pittsburg Commercial, 20th.

The quiet village of Sewickly was thrown into a state of interse excitement on Thursday evening, in consequence of a serious stabbing affray, which resulted from illigalliquor selling. During the afternoon of Thursday a men named Welsh called at the shoe-shop of Stephen Neuman, on Besver street, and after talking seme time proposed to send to a saloon, kept by a man named Hacket, for come "cider" (the active principle of which was bad whisky), for the purpose of having a few social glasses. The cider was purchased, and Hackett and his wife were invited to join the party. The mixture was drunk, and had a most demonstrative effect upon Neuman, who insisted upon fighting Welsh. The latter declined the banter, alleging that he was not a fighting man. This only seemed to increase Neuman's violence, who knocked Welsh down, and acizing a shockking stabled him in the left breast, above the heart—a superficial cut extending down toward the lower part of the abdomen. Mr. and Mrs. Hackett both joined in the assault upon Welsh, who was badly braien on various parts of the body. He cided badly for help, but the door being belted to a saislance was rendered him for some time. The excitment did not terminate with the arrest of Neuman. There being no licensed beuses for the sale of liquor in the village, the critzens became incensed at the conduct of Hackett in led ling out whisky under the guise of cider. They visited his salicou, sized four barrels of the villationa compound, rolled it into the street, and knocked in the heads. A bakery in the neighborhood was next visited, where another barrel was selzed and disposed of in a similar manner. Two hundred men are said to have taken part in these selzures, and other parties reparted of desling in liquors threatened with claulier vengeance. Towards midnight the excitement entirely cubided and the village lettical to rest. and the viliage retired to rest.

Charter Convention.

At the last sitting of thie body, Taesday and Friday of each week were designated as the times for all regular meetinge during the existence of the Conven-tion. Therefore a semi-weekly meeting will be held to-night at the Council Chamber. Mr. Baird, chairman of the government, has given notice that he ous report. This report will treat many of the more prominent sections of the charter, and their discussion this evening will be very general and inter and we regret to add that the performance was little better. Mr. Hanchett's piece and Mr. Hanchett's acting were both very good; but Miss Price did not and could not do herself justice with such chilly surroundings. The stage business dragged, and, all in all, it was discouraging. To report otherwise would do no aging. To report otherwise would do no service to the management with which we sympathias and discredit our fature expression of opinion. We trust they may have a happler foundation, and that we may yet record a genulne specess for the summer search. It is surely our wish to do so; and many a bad beginning takes a good ending.

A fine and spacious block of atone sommenced at the of First and Washington atreets. The block includes three stores, owned respecively by Warren Mitchell, Mrs. Hite, and Henry Pope. It will be four or five stories high, fronting eighty feet on Piret on Washington street. The corner atore (Mr. Mitchell's) has a frontage of thirty feet, and the other two each twenty-six feet. Joseph Mongomery is the con-tractor for the whole work. The struc-ture will have fine cut stone corners, massive iron front, and will in all points be a superbedifice, costing from thirty thousand to forty thousand dollars.

We are pleased to notice another good improvement on the south side of Main, between Third and Fourth streets. The two buildings occupied by Henry Deppen, merchant tailor, and J. M. Ladd, hatter, are in process of complete ovarhauling. They are to be carried in another growth and the south side of the cadeta have been remarkably good—only one case of serious illness having occurred. The next academic year begins on the first Monday in September.

No petitions for adjudication in bank-aupicy were filed and no discharges were granted in the United States Court yesterday.

From the Kenton Circuit Court. Opinion delivered by Judgs Hardin, June 20, 1868 Opinion delivered by Judgs Hardin, June 20, 1878.

The appeliant brought this suit in equity for the perilition of certain lots in Covington, which descended from James S. Bavidsou, decessed, to his children, one of whom, Janet S. Creighton, wie of Hamilton Creighton, land and united with her husband in a conveyance of her interest to the appellant. Mrs. Creighton, as a defendant, resisted the appellant's claim, cat he ground that the deed of herself and husband did not divest her of her title, and the prisintif did not acquire by it any interest in the property.

The deed was acknowledged before T Marsball, Mayor of the city of Nienia, O. That portion of the Mayor's certificate in relation to the separate examination of Mrs. Circlighton (which is the part held to be insufficient by the appellees) is as follows: "And the said Jamett S. An adjourned meeling of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening. There was a larger attendance than usual, and a greater interest in the affairs of the Association was manifested on the part of those present than has been fait for sever-al months past. The work of looking after strangers in cur city was one of the primary objects of the Association, but for some reason it has teen greatly neglected, in fact very little has been done in this way, and it seems to be the desire of those who engaged in the discussion of the question that this work be systematically organized and thoreughly carried on. New Idea. Semething decidedly new to the eyes of La visville may be seen at the residence of Dr. Hull-cee, on the north side of Jeferson street, between Preston and Floyd. it is a bronze-green application, imilative of metal, upon the vestibule door, the two front-doors, and all the windows and sash of the house. Nothing of this kind has been infroduced in Louisville before. The residence of Nich. Long. worth, in Cincinnali, is similarly mented, the work having been done in 1802 by Mr. J. N. Piciffer, the gentleman who applied it to Dr. Itull-cee's building. The bronzing is certainly quite attractive n uppearance, and will no doubt conto general use.

Colored Folks' Fnir A fair was opened last night by the colored people at Union Hali (the oid Medical College) on the corner of Green and Fifth atreets, for the benefit of the Greeu street African Methodist Church. pre-ses; the rival candidates to the Democialic ticket are working vigorously and zealously, and while they may claim, and some deserve, credit for coinciding with Democratic principles. and some decerve, credit for coinciding with Democratic principles, they are now as clearly and earnestly working for the advancement of the radical ticket and the enforcement of negro suffrage, as the most carnest member of the Black Republican party. It is not with the principles men hold, but the principles they advance, we have to deal. Those men must be as earnestly opposed as any open and professed radical. While we indulge in the hope that some of them will see the dangerous principlea they are sustaining and come out in the true party for the law and government, yet, whils they may remain recusant, they must be expressed.

We observed the presence in this city yesterday of Captain J. II. Downs, operative of the United States Treasury Department, Washington. The Captain is here as a witness in one of the most important cases before the United States Court. Thleves are in a bad fix that ever get beneath his eye; and he's got his eve get beneath his eye; and he's got his eye on seversi of them.

It gives us pleasure to announce that the commencement of this school will occuron Thursday next at 8 Celeck, P. M., in Weisiger Hall. We are told that the exercises will beal omptly at the hour named, and the audience will be dismissed at a sessonable honr. Twenty-three young ladies will graduate; only twenty-two, however, will iss, and others, would be expected as need their essays, ons being out of the city on account of ill health. The essays will be short, and the pleces of music few
